Dear friend of Freshwater Festival,

Our recent concert on Sunday 29th January drew great praise from our audience. "wonderful", "superb", "truly enjoyable", were some of the compliments directed towards our extraordinary and generous artists, Diana Doherty, Kirsty Hilton, Catherine Hewgill and our Artistic Director, Bernadette Harvey. Don't miss the next event – only 40 seats are available and the concerts are always fully subscribed. All donations over $5.00 are tax deductible.

In line with one of our aims – to encourage and support young people in their endeavours- the next House Concert on Sunday, 19th February at 2pm will feature a fine young pianist entering the Sydney International Piano Competition this year. It will be a solo recital. Your attendance will allow him some performance practice prior to his audition. He is eighteen year old Bo An Lu, studying Science Law at Sydney University as well as maintaining his music studies at this high level. The program is rich and romantic, presenting works by Chopin, Liszt, and Debussy.

As this is an advanced student recital, proceeds of which will be donated to the Freshwater Festival, the cost will be $20.00 donation, $10.00 for school and music students instead of the usual $30.00.
